We are now calling for abstracts

Call for papers has been published on the conference web site and you are welcome to submit an abstract of your paper. Submissions may be made via the www.epts2017budapest.eu website and further details can also be found there. You will need to give your e-mail address and your phone number and you can submit as many abstracts as you wish. You are invited to submit an abstract limited to a maximum of 300 words on any of the Conference topics, using the instructions of the site.

All papers accepted for the conference and covered by at least one registration will be fully published (in printed form) in the book of proceedings as well as in digital form (on a CD).

View the conference website, which contains full details regarding the conference objectives, topics and submission requirements at: www.epts2017budapest.eu.

For papers there will be the option for peer-review and the opportunity for participants to publish their papers on the conference site. In addition to contributions to the conference program, the organizers are keen to offer a home to project meetings and dissemination seminars. Further details can be obtained from e-mail: epts@ktenet.hu.
